

Bhambola – Online Gaming Rules

- Bhambola is an online number-based game where numbers from 1 to 90 are drawn randomly by the system.
- Each ticket contains 15 numbers arranged in 3 rows and 9 columns.
- Numbers are generated automatically and are non-repeatable during a game.
- Players must mark the called numbers on their digital tickets.
- Winners must submit claims using the “Claim” button within the given time.
- All claims are verified by the system. Incorrect or late claims will be rejected.
- Winning patterns may include:
  - Early Five
  - Top Line
  - Middle Line
  - Bottom Line
  - Full House
  - Corners
  - Any announced custom patterns
- Prize details are announced before each game.
- Each winning pattern can be claimed only once, unless stated otherwise.
- In case of multiple valid claims, the system decision shall be final.
- Use of bots, automation, or unfair practices is strictly prohibited.
- Multiple accounts by the same user are not allowed.
- Bhambola is not responsible for losses due to:
  - Internet issues
  - Device failures
  - Power cuts
  - Server interruptions
- Users are responsible for maintaining account confidentiality.
- Ticket purchases and game entries are non-refundable, unless stated otherwise.

- Payments, if applicable, are processed through authorized gateways.
- Bhambola may cancel, suspend, or reschedule games due to technical or operational reasons.
- Rules may be updated periodically. Continued participation implies acceptance.
